

Theorizing Modern Society as a Dynamic Process,
edited by Harry F Dahms & Lawrence Hazelrigg

Introduction, Harry F Dahms & Lawrence Hazelrigg

Part I: Between Analytics and Dialectics

Toward Bridging Analytics and Dialectics:
Nonergodic Processes and Turning Points in Dynamic Models of Social Change with Illustrations from Labor Movement History,
Larry W Isaac and Paul Lipold

Adorno, Advocate of the Nonidentical: An Introduction, Albrecht Wellmer

Developments of Analytical Logic and Dialectical
Logic with Regard to the Study of Process
Dynamics, Lawrence Hazelrigg

Part II: Linking American and European Perspectives

Communication, Language, and the Emergence of Social Orders,
John Hamilton Bradford

Culture, Theory, and Critique: Marx, Durkheim, and Human Science,
Michael E Brown and Jeffrey A Halley

Sociality-Normativity-Morality: The Explanatory Strategy of Günter Dux's Historico-Genetic Theory,
Heinz-Jürgen Niedenzu

Part III: Political Dynamics in Modern Societies

Politics Disembodied and Deterritorialized: The Internet as Human Rights Resource, Benjamin Gregg

Civil Society and the State in the Neoliberal Era: Dynamics of Friends and Enemies,
Jon Shefner and Harry F Dahms

The Social Construction of the European Society,
Georg Vobruba

